

PLACEMENT STATISTICS - GLOBAL PLACEMENT

Saveetha Institute of Medical and Technical Sciences (SIMATS) is a deemed university that comprises several colleges to its credit. The institute has a good track record of global placements for its graduates. Saveetha Engineering College has tie-ups with various industries and MNCs, providing opportunities for students to participate in internships, industrial visits, and in-plant training programs. The college's placement cell organizes campus recruitment drives, and several leading companies visit the campus every year to recruit students. The college has an excellent placement record of 15 - 18%, of its graduates being placed in renowned companies across the globe. Saveetha Medical and Dental College has an active placement cell that helps a minimum of 10% students secure placements in top hospitals and research institutions across the world annually. The college has MOUs with leading healthcare providers, research institutions, and universities, providing students with opportunities to undertake research projects and internships. Saveetha School of Management offers placement assistance to students through its placement cell with leading corporate houses and banks, providing students with opportunities to participate in internships and training programs. Saveetha School of Law also has a dedicated placement cell that assists students in securing placements in top law firms, corporate houses, and research institutions across the world. The school has tie-ups with leading law firms and corporate houses, providing students with opportunities to participate in internships and training programs. The school's graduates have secured placements in top law firms and corporate houses globally. In conclusion, SIMATS deemed university and its constituent colleges have a good track record of global placements, with graduates securing placements in leading companies, research institutions, hospitals, and law firms across the world. The institute's tie-ups with various industries, corporate houses, and research institutions provide students with excellent exposure and opportunities to gain practical knowledge and skills.

Click to view details